CUBAN VICTORY.

The Battle at Holguin a Royal Victory for the Patriot Forces. Over One Thousand Killed.

About 3,000 Dons Ambushed and Slaughtered Before Their Retreat. Cubans Feel Encouraged.

New York, March 3.—Reports of the recent battle at Holguin, province of Santiago de Cuba, have been received in New York. Instead of the battle being a Spanish victory, as reported from Havana, it was a disastrous defeat, followed by a retreat on the part of the Spanish forces.

Gen. Linares commanded the best Spanish forces on the island, and started with them from Holguin to Santiago de Cuba, but in a regular death trap, a valley between natural rock fortifications ten miles out of Holguin, about 300 Cubans attacked the large Spanish forces and fought for four days, killing, it is estimated, over 1,000 Spanish and routing the Dons completely.

Every day Spanish dead were buried and the wounded sent back to Holguin. Gen. Garcia's command did not reach full strength until the fifth day after the fighting began.
On this day the Spanish columns retreated in confusion, carrying the wounded to Holguin and leaving 200 dead on the field.

The Cuban loss in the five days' fighting was less than fifty killed.

The real Spanish loss will never be known, as the dead and wounded were taken from the field at night. It is stated that nearly 1,000 were killed and wounded. From word received from Holguin it was learned that there were several companies almost annihilated by the Cuban fire.

Other letters from the Cuban army report it in good condition, and one from ex-President Cisneros stated that the whole eastern portion of the island is safe in the control of the Cuban civil government.

Bound for Havana.

Portsmouth, N.H., March 3.—The congressional party, which is to visit Havana and learn the true situation, so that they may act more satisfactorily on the Cuban question, came here yesterday and left for Havana on the yacht Aneta. It is thought this visit means that President McKinley is preparing to take some decisive step in the Cuban controversy.

Smallpox Scare At Lexington.
Lexington, Ky., March 3.—Current street reports of two well developed cases of smallpox in the southern end of town among negroes gave the people a general scare yesterday morning. An investigation proved that the cases were not smallpox.

POWERFUL EXPLOSIVES.

Discovered at Last That the Maine's Back Was Broken When She Sank in the Harbor at Havana.

Certain That a Submarine Mine Rent the Battleship Asunder.
Keel of the Vessel Split.
Inquiry Nearly Finished.

Havana, Cuba, March 3.—The Maine's back was broken. This latest discovery made by the experts not only supports the information published last Friday concerning the disclosures of paramount importance made by Ensign Powelson, but convinces those in charge of the submarine investigation beyond all shadow of a doubt that a submarine mine rent the battleship asunder. The keel of the ship has been found in two pieces, the nearest ends of which are now separated by a distance of two and a half to three feet.

The sections are no longer lying in one straight line, but show the effect of the force exerted from port to starboard, noticeable in no other wreck.

It is evident, from the discovery of the present condition of the keel, that section of the bottom having been found twenty nine feet from its natural position, that the bottom was wrenched from the keel by the first explosion and driven upward. The keel itself was forced in the middle until it was broken in two and then collapsed in two sections, which fell in the position in which the divers found them.

Persons familiar with the results of high explosives and with wrecks above and under water, say the breaking of the keel as now disclosed could not possibly have been done by an internal explosion of a vessel alone.

In fact, this last discovery of the manner in which the Maine's back was broken, taken together with earlier disclosures made public, has convinced the men working about the wreck that further investigation as to the manner in which the ship was blown up is perfectly useless. They consider the question solved beyond doubt.

The board of inquiry will, of course, hear the evidence as to the wrenching apart of the keel. The divers and officers in charge will be summoned to Key West if the board does not return to Havana. The feeling among the American naval officers in Havana is that beyond the recovery of the dead yet remaining on the wreck all useful work in connection with the Maine has been done.

LEAP TO HIS DEATH.

John Hackett, a Rouser on the John S. Hopkins, Jumped Overboard to Escape a Mob.

Hackett Was Charged With Stealing a Pocketbook From a Minister at Cave-in-
Rock, Ill.

Martin mob law has been enrolled and sent to the Governor, who will propose the amendment to require the payment of poll tax before voting failed to receive a two-fifths vote in the Senate, but a motion to reconsider has been adopted.

The Tennessee railroad commission has ordered the Southern Railway company to make the same rates on shipments of freight from New York to Knoxville as are given to Memphis and Nashville.

A meeting has been called for Tuesday, March 8, of the commissioners appointed by Gov. Bradley to prepare for the ceremonies incident to the christening of the battleship Kentucky, March 24.

Major Crumbaugh's Confirmation Waiting on Senator Deboe.

Washington, March 2.—A. J.
Worsham was today appointed postmaster at Henderson and J. J. Jones at Morganfield. It is said if Deboe will try he can insure Crumbaugh's confirmation.

Most Too Young.

A couple came in this afternoon from near Stiles, this county, and called on Justice Winchester to be married. The intended groom was well acquainted with the customs of the people who inhabit the little village which was once the headquarters of the bold gang of outlaws in the United States, knew trouble was brewing.

No demonstration was made and the boat was allowed to land and unload her cargo before any movement was made by the mob at the wharf.

When the boat was ready to leave the landing the marshal of the village walked aboard and informed Capt.
Gilbert that a deck hand on the boat had stolen a pocketbook belonging to a local minister.

He was a kid and was granted permission to search the boat. The only clew he had to the identity of the negro was that he had a white hat.

Two deck hands wearing white hats were found and quickly taken possession of by the mob, who tied ropes around their necks and lead them to the nearest telegraph pole, where arrangements were quickly made to string them up.

The crowd was loudly clamoring for their lives when the marshal discovered Hatchett who was sleeping upon the deck with a white hat over his face. When Hatchett was awakened by the marshal he looked around him and asked what place he was. When he was told Cave-in-Rock he tore loose from the marshal and made a rush for the forward side of the boat. As he reached the railing a number of the mob who had crowded upon the deck of the steamer sent a fusillade of bullets after him. He threw his hand to his left side and plunged into the water, and rose no more. Cheated out of their victim the mob still wanted to hang the two negroes who they had previously captured and it was with the greatest difficulty that the officers of the boat persuaded the leaders of the mob to spare the lives of the deck hands.

Cave-in-Rock has always been noted for its hatred which its inhabitants bear the colored race and it is said there is not a negro living in the little village. The occurrence yesterday created the wildest excitement among the passengers of the boat.

There is little probability that the leaders of the mob will ever be brought to justice.

John Hatchett, the victim, was a resident of Evansville, and the penalty he paid was for the theft of a few penny coins supposed to have been stolen from a minister of the gospel.

Frankfort, Ky., March 3.—No caucus has yet been called on the Goebel or McChord bills. Representative Means today asked that the house adjourn March 7. The request was laid on the table. It now looks very blue for all of the vetoed bills and the friends of the Goebel and McChord bills are getting very much alarmed.

Frankfort, March 3.—The state dental examining board bill passed senate today. The pure food bill failed to get through the house. Senator Triplet's act amending ferry law also passed senate.

MILLY'S GOAT.

Wound Up His Career by Making a Meat of Her Hair.

Some little mirth was created last Sunday at a religious gathering of young men. As usual, when the proper time came, divine blessing was invoked. While the inevitable "Amen" was awaiting those present were surprised and somewhat amused to hear a fervent supplication in behalf of the organist. The latter was no doubt surprised himself, for he admitted as much to the writer afterwards. But after the minister had ceased his special invocation for the soul of the unshuffled organist, and the meeting closed, the object of those solicitations was mercilessly twisted by the others, who jokingly informed him that he was thus suggled out as a special object of prayer because he was the one in the congregation who needed it most. He retorted by asserting that the preacher prayed for him because he was the only one there worth praying for.

"See here, what can't your news paper tell the truth?" demanded the irascible old man who was boiting over with rage then because one had told the truth on him. "I—I—I never saw the like; it's awful!"

"Umphum," was the blasphemous reply of the newspaper man. That word "blasphemy" may not be correctly used here, but it sounds hot, and everybody was hot at the time.

"I'll tell you what," the other proceeded, "if you ever publish a paper with the truth in it, let me know, and I'll—I'll—I'll be dead if I won't buy one!"

"Yes," dryly rejoined the other,
"I guess for a newspaper to contain the truth would be about as unusual a thing as for you to buy one. It's hard to guess which would startle the world more." The rest of the colloquy was drowned in the noise of the passing street car.

The objection to the word "Camp-bellite," as a religious distinction, was known to a certain young lad of Paducah who recently went away visiting. One day she was dining with a distinguished family, among whose guests were several prominent preachers. The young lady was introduced to Baptist, Methodist, Christian, and others, and at once got on her best behavior.

"Miss—," inquired the host between courses, "are you Christian?"

"No sir," was the quick reply,
"I'm a Methodist!"

The company had a good laugh at the expense of the disfigured young minister of that denomination, whereupon the young lady hastened to explain that she thought her host meant a "Campbellite."

Instantly the minister from the Christian church haughtily inquired, "Indeed? and what is that, may I inquire?"

Ask two-thirds of those enthusiasts that want to start out tomorrow to whip Spain, who is going to take care of their wives and families while they are away attending to this pleasant pastime, and they will find that she thought her host meant a "Campbellite."

This Don's opportunity, and he grasped the situation at once. Seizing the dead duck, he swam rapidly to the upper point of the island and laid it down on the sand, and then dashed into the water again in pursuit of the disabled one. He soon overtook and captured it, and at once struck out for the bank where we were standing. As soon as he reached us he went to his master, who received the game from him. Instantly, when this was done, he plunged into the stream again, and reaching the island, took up the dead duck and again reached us with his trophy.—Richmond Despatch.

The St. James A. M. E. church is another house of worship that is destined to come to the front. It is in the North End or what is called the low end of the city. Rev. H. L.
Smith is pastor, and is doing yeoman service in his behalf. He deserves to be encouraged in his efforts to christen-ize his people. Rev. Sims, of Florida, will occupy the pulpit at this place next Sunday evening.

Take Their Honeymoon on the Installment Plan.

The employees in a LaSalle street banking concern have become the daily witnesses of a pretty love episode.

Every day just a few minutes before 12 o'clock a handsome and neatly dressed young woman appears on the opposite corner and waits.

Her arrival is so well timed that always within three minutes the man comes bolting out of the big office building directly across the way and hurries to meet her.

She meets him with outstretched hands, and they come from across the street and walk toward the lake.

Sometimes they have a sly willingness to hold hands as they start away for their luncheon.

A half hour later, almost to the minute, they reappear, still beaming with the satisfaction of each other's company.

She accompanies him to the main entrance of the big office building where he is employed.

There they loiter for a few moments evidently dwelling on the sad good-byes, and he puts one arm around her and draws her up to him and imprints a warm and lingering kiss.

At this climax of the daily episode the clerks in the bank are lined up at the windows, and they watch the kiss with intense satisfaction and a complicated "Ah-h-h-h!"

The young man never hesitates because people are looking. The young woman doesn't mind. The employee of the bank do not object.

It has been agreed among the daily spectators that the two have been married lately and that both are employed downtown and must take their honeymoon on the installment plan—a half hour of it every noon.—Chicago

REGULATORS OUT.

They Badly Chastise a Negro Tramp

In the Woods.

Last night a band of regulators, with masks, clubs and whips, went to the residence of Dan Burk, on West Broadway, to ascertain what he knew about the recent robbery at his house. He was gone.

The white caps then scouted about through the woods until they came across several negro tramps around the fire. One was seized and mercilessly whipped by the crowd, and then made to make tracks through the woods. There is no clue to the man's identity.

A PECULIAR TRIAL.

Man To Be Tried For Being of Sound Mind.

Nr. Henry Carnal, a well known citizen of the county, is this afternoon to be tried on an unusual charge. He is to be tried on a charge of being of sound mind.

At press time a jury was being summoned to the court house to try him. A year ago last May he was sent to the asylum. He returned last July cured and was desirous of being tried and adjudged of sound mind, in order to get possession of his property.

HIS BROTHER DYING.

Mr. Grove Grehan Called to His Home in Memphis.

Mr. Grove Grehan, the well known young Southern Express messenger, was called to his home in Memphis yesterday by a telegram announcing that his brother was dying.

Mr. Grehan left at once over the Illinois Central, and Mr. Rich Geary took him on his run on the N. C. & St. L. His brother, who was reported as dying, was injured last summer by falling from a second-story window, and it was from the effects of this fall that his demise was expected.

IT WAS THE LOWEST BID.

Was That of Contractor Lane On the Power House.

The contract let to Contractor J. R. Lane, for the new power house, added yesterday, was for $3,140, and this, according to President George C. Wallace, was the lowest bid. Work began today.

There are considerable repairs needed on the city electric plant, according to reports. Councilman Jackson has taken a look through the building, and is of the above opinion, and the work will doubtless soon be ordered.

Today a delegation of local Illinois Central officials called at Mayor Lang's office and signed bonds of special police officers Quinn and Cheatum, who were appointed by Mayor Lang several days ago.

Supt. Frank Davis, of the electric plant, has ascertained that there are no lights on some of the intersections where the police in their nightly reports, report the lights out. He doesn't see how a light can shine on a corner when there is no light there.

Mayor Lang, in discussing the matter this morning, laughingly remarked that the police could not be expected to know a light when they see it at the hour they make their observations.

The court Judge Sanders is to hold Saturday an ordinance court, and not necessarily a "license court," as described by a contemporary this morning. Today a great many of the delinquents came up and paid their license.

The mayor states that there is on record no permission from the railroad company for the city to locate its pumping station and well on the company's property. Supt. Harahan was written of this fact, and while here a day or two ago made arrangements to give the city a lease, with all the necessary papers.
